AMMUNITION FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Here is some ammunition for the Campaign for Christian Education, which we pass along to you. Some of it has already been fired a good many times but it grows in value with use. Put your powder behind it and let it go.

You will note some of your own ideas here. Perhaps you have given them still better expression.

LINE UP!

It ain't the guns, nor armament
Nor funds that they can pay,
But the close co-operation
That makes them win the day.

It ain't the individuals
Nor the army as a whole
But the everlastin' team work
Of every bloomin' soul.
—Rudyard Kipling.

To make the world safe for democracy, that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth—this is the task of Christian education in America.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE AMERICAN COLLEGE

"I would particularly urge upon the young people who are leaving our high schools that as many of them as can do so, avail themselves this year of the opportunities offered by the colleges and technical schools to the end that the country may not lack an adequate supply of trained men and women."—President Wilson.

"The recuperation of the nations which are involved in the present struggle will require all the strength and virtue of humanity, and if, in the meanwhile, we allow the institutions which form the basis of moral, mental and spiritual power to fall into decadence, the loss will be
